

May Breakfast
Hosted by
Graduate Women Qld Sunshine Coast Branch
Saturday May 12, 2018
Headland Golf Club, Golf Links Road, Buderim.

Guest Speaker - Capt. Jan Becker

Masters in Aviation Management; B.Sc. (Nursing) and CPL (Helicopter)

CEO of Becker Helicopters & RN & Midwife

Jan's unique upbringing in Singapore helped shape the International focus in her career. With a Bachelor of Science (Nursing)

Jan is currently a certified Midwife, General and Psychiatric Nurse. She has worked in remote locations, including the Outback of Australia, Tanzania and the Highlands of Papua New Guinea. Her nursing career has included roles in Neonatal Intensive Care and Accident and Emergency departments, in Australia, NZ, PNG and Tanzania. Jan comes from an Aviation family which has also influenced her career. During Jan's role as CEO of Becker Helicopters, they have achieved many Awards. Jan has been a Keynote speaker at International Women's Day events, QUT Graduation Ceremony, Conferences and many others.

Jan is on a mission to improve and promote maternal and neonatal health through education, community effort and professional support. Jan's current challenge is working as a midwife at the Amana Hospital in Dar es Salaam in Tanzania. With the help of her daughter, Chase, she is working alongside the local medical staff to assist in birthing and improve the health of new born babies and their mothers.

The USC utilised Jan as an assistant lecturer at the School of Nursing Transcultural Health Units, as well as an annual Guest Lecturer at the Masters and Undergraduate Programs in Business at USC.

Funds raised from this breakfast are directed toward our bursary program for the education of women and girls, including undergraduates at USC, the STEM program at Burnside (for young mothers returning to education) and refugee girls at Milpera SHS in Brisbane.

Your support for this function is appreciated.
Donations welcomed.
