Sunshine Coast Branch
November Breakfast, celebrating Indigenous and Multi-cultural Australia
Saturday November 6 2021
Headland Golf Club – Golf Links Road, Buderim.

Speakers

Norma McMichael – Life Member GWQ SC, Archivist and Memory Keeper.

Norma will present a snapshot of GWQ SC over the past 30 years, particularly of the last 5 years.

Mealat Gehrehiwet – Recipient of the GWQ SC REP Tertiary Bursary

. Mealat attended the hosting program in 2018. She is now in first year at Griffith University, enrolled in a BSc but is transferring to a B Business in second semester. Mealat has worked very hard to save funds for her fees, since she hasn't received HECS because of her visa status. She has also completed several certificates to assist her employability and shows a strong commitment to her studies.

Rachel Taylor – Recipient of the GWQ SC Indigenous Tertiary Bursary.

Rachel has a GPA of 5.92. She initially studied a Diploma of Social and Human Services at USC She was credited a year study and is now in her 2nd year of a Bachelor of Human Services degree at USC. She has a practicum in 2nd semester 2021 at the Fraser Coast and has asked to be placed in child protection or youth services for First Nation children.

STEMM Pantry Collection – please bring along a non-perishable food or household item to assist in supporting the girls at STEMM. For example, laundry cleaning products, baby wipes, UHT milk, cereals, tinned fruit, meal packages etc. Cash or vouchers also welcome.

GWQ SC - dynamic organisation for women graduates on the Sunshine Coast, who meet for friendship and fellowship, and also provide financial support for women and girls, who are furthering their education. www.graduatewomen.org.au
